Dear Friends,

With all the world shaking events taking place, I am unmoved. Because after the powwow sessions I find nothing good has happened. The greater the noise the less the change. So, why worry?

After all that's said and done — there is more said than done. So, why worry? "Plus ça change plus c'est la meme chose."

10 - 01 - 1202 over

However, that French proverb is more apropos to friendship than politics. The more old friends change the more ~~the more~~ their friendship remains the same". I find the same to be true in our long friendship. (My last visit confirmed it!) So, why worry?

I hope to make the visits an annual tradition. G-d willing!

Sor, I thought the NYT clipping would confirm your opinion of the "Cold Warrior"

Zeit gezunt and Sholom! Joe
